These rights shall also apply where the Buyer has arranged to collect the Goods from the Company but fails to do so within twenty-one days of notification by the Company that such Goods are ready for collection. In any or all of the eventualities specified in this clause 4. d), the Company shall be entitled to treat the Contract as being repudiated and thereby terminated.
- e) Goods must be examined by the Buyer immediately on delivery. Notification of short delivery of Goods and/or of lost or damaged Goods in transit must be made either by giving to the carrier a note detailing the shortage and/or damage at the time of delivery and confirming to the Company in writing within three days of delivery or if no note is given to the carrier then by written notification to the Company within the said three days of the date of delivery of the Goods.

(When CRAs receive a search, they will place a search on the Buyer's business credit file that may be seen by other lenders. These agencies supply business and fraud prevention information); and iii) records at Fraud Prevention Agencies. Further, the Company may seek confirmation from CRAs, that the residential addresses of the Buyer's directors are the same as those shown on the restricted register of directors' usual addresses at Companies House. The Company also reserve the right to make further periodic searches at the aforementioned agencies and records as it considers appropriate.
- c) If credit terms are permitted, payment must be made on or by 20th of the month following the date of the relevant invoice.
- d) The Company may invoice the Buyer for the Goods at any time after the completion of delivery.

- g) If the Buyer fails to make any payment due under any Contract between it and the Company, then the Company shall be entitled to terminate any Contract between it and the Buyer forthwith and shall not be liable to perform any part of any Contract still incomplete at that time nor shall the Company be bound by any warranty.
- h) If the Buyer fails to adhere to the terms of payment of any invoice, then the Company may at its sole discretion demand immediate payment of any or all liabilities whether or not payment of these is due.
- i) If the Buyer fails to make any payment on the due date then the Company, without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to it, shall be entitled to charge the Buyer interest, both before and after any Judgment, from the date on which the payment became overdue on the amounts unpaid at the rate of eight per cent above the HSBC plc base rate in force at the time of imposition of the interest until payment in full is made (a part of a month shall be treated as a full month for the purpose of calculating interest). If legal action has to be taken or the Company has to pass the debt to solicitors or any other agent for the recovery of any outstanding debt, then the Company shall be entitled to charge the Buyer an administration fee of £100.
